About Jefferson Parish

Home

Jefferson Parish, Louisiana was established in 1825 and was named in honor of Thomas Jefferson, commemorating his role in purchasing the Louisiana territory from France in 1803. The Parish originally extended from present day Felicite Street in New Orleans, Louisiana, to the St. Charles Parish line. As Orleans Parish grew, it annexed from Jefferson Parish such established areas as the Garden District, Lafayette, Jefferson, and Carrollton. The present boundary was set in 1874, and in 1884 the seat of Parish government was transferred to the West Bank, Gretna, where it has remained.

Once a largely rural area of farms, dairies and vast tracts of undeveloped land, Jefferson Parish today is New Orleans' first suburb - a bedroom community west of the city that received the first great migration of middle-class families from the 1950's to the 1970's.

The parish's largest community is Metairie, an unincorporated area that comprises almost all of East Jefferson. Smaller unincorporated areas include River Ridge and Jefferson. Jefferson Parish is divided by the Mississippi River into the West Bank and East Bank areas. East Jefferson cities include Kenner and Harahan, while Gretna, Westwego, and Lafitte are in West Jefferson.

Council District Plan

Home

Below is the current Council District plan and the plan adopted on March 20, 2002 based upon the 2000 U.S. Census (Ordinance No. 21536, V4 E Alternate 1), please click here.

The districts are drawn using the precincts developed for use during the next Council election. Because of a STATE requirement that all precincts have visible physical boundaries, some precinct lines have been moved. In addition, a precinct may have been merged with an adjacent one.

THE NEW PLAN WILL BE IN EFFECT FOR THE CANDIDATES RUNNING FOR THE COUNCIL IN 2003 AND FOR THE PERSONS ASSUMING OFFICE IN 2004.

Note that particularly in the cases of the municipalities for the PURPOSES OF PRECINCT BOUNDARIES ONLY, precincts may cross municipality boundaries.

If you have any questions or comments concerning reapportionment in Jefferson Parish, you may send an email to reapportionment@jeffparish.net or contact Jefferson Parish Council, Research and Budget Analysis Staff, Room 723, P.O. Box 9, Gretna, LA 70054-0009.

Current Plan

You may click below to view/print the CURRENT plan of the Council Districts. This plan has six (6) Council districts (six district Council members) as well as a Council Chairman elected Parishwide.
